

SOCIAL and PERSONAL

Mrs. Frank Fletcher, of Winnipeg, Canada, and Mrs. J. Haskins, of Powhatan County, who have been guests of Mr. and Mrs. Haskins at Forest Hill, left on Saturday for "Mount Airy," where Mrs. Fletcher will spend several days, before leaving for the North. Mrs. Haskins and her guests also visited in Newport News last week, when several very pretty functions given in their honor were incident to their stay there.

Mrs. Fletcher has just returned from a trip around the world, and will not go to her home in Canada for several weeks to come.

To Visit Baltimore.
Mrs. David B. Tennant, of this city, and Mrs. Henry Fairfax and her daughter, Miss Virginia Fairfax, of Leesburg, expect to go to Baltimore this week for a visit to Mr. Richard Cromwell, Jr. Mrs. Cromwell will entertain her guests at her country home, "Fox-hall," near Catonsville, Md., and Miss Fairfax, of Leesburg, will also be among those visiting there.

Miss Antrim's Wedding.
The marriage of Miss Louise Wilson Antrim, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. John Taylor Antrim, of "Riverside," near the University of Virginia, to John Young Mason, son of Mr. and Mrs. Lewis E. Mason, of Lynchburg, which takes place on Wednesday, is of much interest to society here, where the bride has been much entertained. The ceremony is to be celebrated at 6:30 o'clock in Christ Episcopal Church, in Charlottesville, the Rev. H. B. Lee, rector officiating, and a large company of relatives and friends will be present.

George Cosby, of Lynchburg, will be best man, and Miss Margaret Antrim will be her sister's maid of honor. Mr. William Cooper, of North Carolina, will be matron of honor, and the bridesmaids include Misses Caroline Fleet and Hattie Mason, of Lynchburg; Grace Jones, of Danville, and Gertrude Antrim, sister of the bride. The groomsmen will be Messrs. William Cosby, of Lynchburg; Garland Jefferson, of Amelia, and the ushers are Messrs. Antrim, Littlewood, of Charlottesville; Dr. T. N. Davis, of Lynchburg, and Barton Palmer, of Urbana.

A reception will be held at "Riverside" immediately following the ceremony at the church, to which only the bride party and out-of-town guests have been invited. Mr. Mason and his bride will spend their honeymoon in the North.

Visiting Here.
Mr. and Mrs. Charles P. Pressly and Miss Margaret Pressly, of Augusta, Ga., have been stopping at the Richmond Hotel for several days, before leaving for Washington on Tuesday. Mr. Pressly will leave this fall to assume his duties as vice-consul-general at Paris, and expects to sail with his family on November 1 from New York.

Dunlop Flour

IT'S MADE IN RICHMOND

The Dunlop Mills, Richmond, Va.

J.B. Mosby & Co.

Clover Sale Specials to-day.

Our Rug Department

is showing a beautiful collection of American and Oriental Rugs in sizes for halls, living-rooms and dining-rooms.

SYDNOR & HUNDLEY

THE REINACH CO., Inc.

107 E. BROAD STREET.

MILLINERY—Women's and Misses' Outer Apparel.

Children's School Shoes $1

ALBERT STEIN

Fifth and Broad

Gas Ranges Reduced 10%

ROTHERT & CO.

RICHMOND, VA.

SCHOOL SHOES FOR BOYS AND GIRLS $1.50 to $2.00. Every Pair Guaranteed.

Holzheimer's

Third and Broad.

DREYFUS & CO.

201 East Broad.

Wanted, a Saleslady as assistant in the Corset and Muslin Underwear Sections. Apply to A. G. Hoover.

Shades to Order at Ryan-Smith's

The Low Profit Policy Store

HAMMOND

"Flowers of Guaranteed Freshness."

Tel. Madison 630.

HAVE YOU SEEN THE

New Method Gas Ranges

— AT —

PETTIT & CO.'S?

Thin Fall Waists Need These New Camisoles and Corset Covers

at 50c. each

You must have something pretty and lacy under your new thin waist. A dainty Camisole of net and ribbon or a real lacy nain-sook Corset Cover, such as we show to-day for 50c, will add much to the charm of your new blouse. Colors of pink and blue.

Kaufmann & Co.
Corner Fourth and Broad Streets.

on board the steamship Berlin, for Naples, going direct from Italy to Paris.

Engagement of Interest.

Mr. J. D. Grizzle announces the engagement of her daughter, Miss Martha Juanita Hall, to Dr. Frank Nicholson Mallory, of Lawrenceville. The marriage will be celebrated early in October.

Miss Stewart's Debutante.

Says the Baltimore Sun: "A dance will be given Thursday evening, October 16, at the Catonsville Country Club by Mr. and Mrs. William A. Stewart, of Ivywild, in honor of their debutante daughter, Miss Sadie Stewart."

"Mrs. Stewart and her daughter have just returned from 'The Plains,' Fauquier County, Virginia, where they were guests at the wedding of Miss Mary Welby Carter, daughter of Colonel Alexander Carter, of Meadow Grove, to Robert B. Beverly, of Essex County, Va., which took place Wednesday afternoon."

"Miss Stewart is one of the most charming girls to be presented to Baltimore society this winter, and her relatives and friends in Richmond are greatly interested in her debut. Mr. and Mrs. Stewart have taken a house in Baltimore for the season, after spending the summer with the latter's sister, Mrs. James Foster, at 'Glenville' in Alexandria."

Miss Nellie Selden Uhler entertained Friday morning at a bridge-luncheon at her home in Alexandria. Her guests were Mrs. Robert W. Dyer, Dr. D. Milton French, Misses Esther Burke, Kitty Barrett, Christina Kemper, Mary Glenn Uhler, Clarence Snowden, Alice Anderson, Edgar Green, Julia Nicol and Miss Beale Jackson, of Richmond. Miss Jackson, who has been spending some time on the Maine coast with Mr. and Mrs. Gordon R. Mason, is now the guest of Mrs. Taylor Darke in Alexandria. Miss Jackson will not return to Richmond for several weeks.

Returned From the Beach.

Mrs. Walter Christian closed her cottage at Virginia Beach and returned to her home in Richmond last week. Mrs. J. Ambler Johnston and her small son, Walter Christian Johnston, who have been at Virginia Beach with Mrs. Christian for the past several weeks, have also returned to the city. Mr. and Mrs. Johnston have taken a house on West Avenue for the winter.

To Meet on Thursday.

At a meeting of the Children's Auxiliary to Lee Chapter, United Daughters of the Confederacy, are asked to meet in the lobby of the Jefferson Hotel, Main Street entrance, on Thursday afternoon, October 2, at 3:30 o'clock. A full attendance is desired.

In and Out of Town.

Misses Grace and Rubenette Lee, of Lynchburg, were guests of Mrs. William Hougher Mann at the Executive Mansion last week.

W. Welby Beverly has returned to the city, after spending several days with relatives in Fauquier County.

Misses Warfield Crenshaw, Fannie Crenshaw and Elizabeth Wheat have returned to Richmond, after spending several months in Europe.

Mrs. Charles Weber, of this city, is a guest of the Misses Weber at their home in Baltimore.

Miss Louise Miller, who has been visiting in Ashland, has returned to Richmond.

Miss Marie Coleman and her brother, Edward Coleman, of Denver, Col., returned Saturday to their home, after a visit to Mr. and Mrs. John Disney, of 2214 East Grace Street.

Miss Mary Ball Saunders, who has been with friends in Atlantic City, has returned to her home in this city.

Mrs. E. F. Hutton has recently moved into her new home at 115 West Main Street.

Miss Elsie Harrison, who has been with relatives at North Hatley, Canada, for the past several weeks, has returned to Richmond.

Mrs. J. O. McGehee, of 540 West Grace Street, is visiting her sisters and other relatives in Blackstone and Nottoway.

Miss Kate Mason Rowland has returned to the city, and will make her home at 115 West Main Street for the winter.

Miss Rivers Harrison, of Danville, arrived in Richmond last week to spend the winter in this city.

Mrs. Donald Harrison, of Danville, will come to Richmond shortly for a visit of several weeks to relatives.

Mrs. Daisy Summers and little James Summers, have returned to 327 South Pine Street, having arrived September 26 on the steamship Mauretania, of the Cunard Line, after spending the summer in the South of England.

Miss Virginia Seay, of Shores, is visiting Miss Shields Jones at her home in this city.

Mrs. Grace Hunt, of 104 West Grace Street, will return from New York within the next few days.

Miss Annie M. Love has returned to the college for Women, at Columbia, S. C.

Miss Eliza Bland Lamb, who spent the summer at "Bellevue," near Warsaw, has returned to Richmond.

Colonel W. J. Perry has returned to his home in Staunton, after a short visit here.

Mrs. N. B. Croston, of this city, is the guest of friend in Hanover County, after a short stay in Staunton.

Miss Mary Curtis Lee is the guest of Mrs. Frank D. Mead, in Lexington, before coming to Richmond.

Mr. and Mrs. Harry Krazier have gone to "Thornwald," their country place in West Virginia, for the fall season.

Miss Lizzie Harris and S. C. Harris, who have been at the Gardner Cottage, Virginia Beach, for some time, have returned to the city.

Miss Caroline G. Vaughan, of Ashland, will spend the fall and winter with friends in this city.

William C. Pond and family, of 3321 Park Avenue, have recently moved to Smithfield to make their home.

Miss Georgia Lee, who has been the guest of her sister, Mrs. Charles H. Clark, has returned to Richmond.

Dr. and Mrs. George R. White, of Savannah, are in the city on a visit to Rev. J. Y. Fair, of 501 North Davis Avenue.

NEWS OF EASTERN SHORE

[Special to The Times-Dispatch.]

Onancock, Va., September 28.—At a meeting of the Accomac Medical Association, held at Onley, the following officers were elected for a year: Dr. Fletcher Drummond, of Parksley, president; Dr. B. R. Nevitt, of Temperanceville, vice-president; Dr. John W. Robertson, of Onancock, secretary.

Mrs. Little Jester, of Chincoteague, died. She was seventy-nine years old. Surviving her are five sons, William, Joseph, Charles, James and George Jester; one daughter, Mrs. William Hill, and 104 grandchildren and great-grandchildren.

A mahogany tree planted by Rev. Thomas Ames in 1857, was bought this week from Mr. Ames, daughter, Mrs. William E. Mapp, by John S. Tyler, for $5.

Oysters are in excellent condition, and a good season is expected.

The semi-annual convention of the Woman's Christian Temperance Union for the Counties of Accomac and Northampton, was held at New Church, Mrs. May Sparks, of New Jersey, was the principal speaker. The address of welcome was made by Miss Rev. Paulson, and the response by Miss Willie Evans, of Horntown. Mrs. Lloyd Savage, of Onley, was elected president; Miss Willie Evans, of Horntown, secretary, and Miss Minnie Mills, of Onancock, treasurer.

Mrs. Lloyd Savage and Miss Minnie Mills will go to Luray to attend the State convention.

Mrs. Margie Le Cato Mapp, wife of Dr. John E. Mapp, died at her home, "Woodland," near Keller, aged seventy years. She had been an invalid for several years. Mrs. Mapp was the daughter of the late Mr. and Mrs. Nathaniel B. LeCato, of "Atlantic View," and was the last of that generation of the Shenandoah valley. She was a sister of the late Dr. George W. LeCato, who represented Accomac and Northampton in the State Senate for several terms. Mrs. Mapp was an unusually popular woman, especially among the young people, who admired her for her sterling traits. Mrs. Mapp has been prominent in the work of Oak Grove Methodist Church.

Mrs. Lloyd Savage and Miss Minnie Mills will go to Luray to attend the State convention.

Mrs. Margie Le Cato Mapp, wife of Dr. John E. Mapp, died at her home, "Woodland," near Keller, aged seventy years. She had been an invalid for several years. Mrs. Mapp was the daughter of the late Mr. and Mrs. Nathaniel B. LeCato, of "Atlantic View," and was the last of that generation of the Shenandoah valley. She was a sister of the late Dr. George W. LeCato, who represented Accomac and Northampton in the State Senate for several terms. Mrs. Mapp was an unusually popular woman, especially among the young people, who admired her for her sterling traits. Mrs. Mapp has been prominent in the work of Oak Grove Methodist Church.

Mrs. Lloyd Savage and Miss Minnie Mills will go to Luray to attend the State convention.

Mrs. Margie Le Cato Mapp, wife of Dr. John E. Mapp, died at her home, "Woodland," near Keller, aged seventy years. She had been an invalid for several years. Mrs. Mapp was the daughter of the late Mr. and Mrs. Nathaniel B. LeCato, of "Atlantic View," and was the last of that generation of the Shenandoah valley. She was a sister of the late Dr. George W. LeCato, who represented Accomac and Northampton in the State Senate for several terms. Mrs. Mapp was an unusually popular woman, especially among the young people, who admired her for her sterling traits. Mrs. Mapp has been prominent in the work of Oak Grove Methodist Church.

Mrs. Lloyd Savage and Miss Minnie Mills will go to Luray to attend the State convention.

Mrs. Margie Le Cato Mapp, wife of Dr. John E. Mapp, died at her home, "Woodland," near Keller, aged seventy years. She had been an invalid for several years. Mrs. Mapp was the daughter of the late Mr. and Mrs. Nathaniel B. LeCato, of "Atlantic View," and was the last of that generation of the Shenandoah valley. She was a sister of the late Dr. George W. LeCato, who represented Accomac and Northampton in the State Senate for several terms. Mrs. Mapp was an unusually popular woman, especially among the young people, who admired her for her sterling traits. Mrs. Mapp has been prominent in the work of Oak Grove Methodist Church.

Mrs. Lloyd Savage and Miss Minnie Mills will go to Luray to attend the State convention.

Mrs. Margie Le Cato Mapp, wife of Dr. John E. Mapp, died at her home, "Woodland," near Keller, aged seventy years. She had been an invalid for several years. Mrs. Mapp was the daughter of the late Mr. and Mrs. Nathaniel B. LeCato, of "Atlantic View," and was the last of that generation of the Shenandoah valley. She was a sister of the late Dr. George W. LeCato, who represented Accomac and Northampton in the State Senate for several terms. Mrs. Mapp was an unusually popular woman, especially among the young people, who admired her for her sterling traits. Mrs. Mapp has been prominent in the work of Oak Grove Methodist Church.

Mrs. Lloyd Savage and Miss Minnie Mills will go to Luray to attend the State convention.

Mrs. Margie Le Cato Mapp, wife of Dr. John E. Mapp, died at her home, "Woodland," near Keller, aged seventy years. She had been an invalid for several years. Mrs. Mapp was the daughter of the late Mr. and Mrs. Nathaniel B. LeCato, of "Atlantic View," and was the last of that generation of the Shenandoah valley. She was a sister of the late Dr. George W. LeCato, who represented Accomac and Northampton in the State Senate for several terms. Mrs. Mapp was an unusually popular woman, especially among the young people, who admired her for her sterling traits. Mrs. Mapp has been prominent in the work of Oak Grove Methodist Church.

Mrs. Lloyd Savage and Miss Minnie Mills will go to Luray to attend the State convention.

Mrs. Margie Le Cato Mapp, wife of Dr. John E. Mapp, died at her home, "Woodland," near Keller, aged seventy years. She had been an invalid for several years. Mrs. Mapp was the daughter of the late Mr. and Mrs. Nathaniel B. LeCato, of "Atlantic View," and was the last of that generation of the Shenandoah valley. She was a sister of the late Dr. George W. LeCato, who represented Accomac and Northampton in the State Senate for several terms. Mrs. Mapp was an unusually popular woman, especially among the young people, who admired her for her sterling traits. Mrs. Mapp has been prominent in the work of Oak Grove Methodist Church.

Mrs. Lloyd Savage and Miss Minnie Mills will go to Luray to attend the State convention.

Mrs. Margie Le Cato Mapp, wife of Dr. John E. Mapp, died at her home, "Woodland," near Keller, aged seventy years. She had been an invalid for several years. Mrs. Mapp was the daughter of the late Mr. and Mrs. Nathaniel B. LeCato, of "Atlantic View," and was the last of that generation of the Shenandoah valley. She was a sister of the late Dr. George W. LeCato, who represented Accomac and Northampton in the State Senate for several terms. Mrs. Mapp was an unusually popular woman, especially among the young people, who admired her for her sterling traits. Mrs. Mapp has been prominent in the work of Oak Grove Methodist Church.

Mrs. Lloyd Savage and Miss Minnie Mills will go to Luray to attend the State convention.

Mrs. Margie Le Cato Mapp, wife of Dr. John E. Mapp, died at her home, "Woodland," near Keller, aged seventy years. She had been an invalid for several years. Mrs. Mapp was the daughter of the late Mr. and Mrs. Nathaniel B. LeCato, of "Atlantic View," and was the last of that generation of the Shenandoah valley. She was a sister of the late Dr. George W. LeCato, who represented Accomac and Northampton in the State Senate for several terms. Mrs. Mapp was an unusually popular woman, especially among the young people, who admired her for her sterling traits. Mrs. Mapp has been prominent in the work of Oak Grove Methodist Church.

Mrs. Lloyd Savage and Miss Minnie Mills will go to Luray to attend the State convention.

Mrs. Margie Le Cato Mapp, wife of Dr. John E. Mapp, died at her home, "Woodland," near Keller, aged seventy years. She had been an invalid for several years. Mrs. Mapp was the daughter of the late Mr. and Mrs. Nathaniel B. LeCato, of "Atlantic View," and was the last of that generation of the Shenandoah valley. She was a sister of the late Dr. George W. LeCato, who represented Accomac and Northampton in the State Senate for several terms. Mrs. Mapp was an unusually popular woman, especially among the young people, who admired her for her sterling traits. Mrs. Mapp has been prominent in the work of Oak Grove Methodist Church.

Mrs. Lloyd Savage and Miss Minnie Mills will go to Luray to attend the State convention.

Mrs. Margie Le Cato Mapp, wife of Dr. John E. Mapp, died at her home, "Woodland," near Keller, aged seventy years. She had been an invalid for several years. Mrs. Mapp was the daughter of the late Mr. and Mrs. Nathaniel B. LeCato, of "Atlantic View," and was the last of that generation of the Shenandoah valley. She was a sister of the late Dr. George W. LeCato, who represented Accomac and Northampton in the State Senate for several terms. Mrs. Mapp was an unusually popular woman, especially among the young people, who admired her for her sterling traits. Mrs. Mapp has been prominent in the work of Oak Grove Methodist Church.

Mrs. Lloyd Savage and Miss Minnie Mills will go to Luray to attend the State convention.

Mrs. Margie Le Cato Mapp, wife of Dr. John E. Mapp, died at her home, "Woodland," near Keller, aged seventy years. She had been an invalid for several years. Mrs. Mapp was the daughter of the late Mr. and Mrs. Nathaniel B. LeCato, of "Atlantic View," and was the last of that generation of the Shenandoah valley. She was a sister of the late Dr. George W. LeCato, who represented Accomac and Northampton in the State Senate for several terms. Mrs. Mapp was an unusually popular woman, especially among the young people, who admired her for her sterling traits. Mrs. Mapp has been prominent in the work of Oak Grove Methodist Church.

Mrs. Lloyd Savage and Miss Minnie Mills will go to Luray to attend the State convention.

Mrs. Margie Le Cato Mapp, wife of Dr. John E. Mapp, died at her home, "Woodland," near Keller, aged seventy years. She had been an invalid for several years. Mrs. Mapp was the daughter of the late Mr. and Mrs. Nathaniel B. LeCato, of "Atlantic View," and was the last of that generation of the Shenandoah valley. She was a sister of the late Dr. George W. LeCato, who represented Accomac and Northampton in the State Senate for several terms. Mrs. Mapp was an unusually popular woman, especially among the young people, who admired her for her sterling traits. Mrs. Mapp has been prominent in the work of Oak Grove Methodist Church.

Mrs. Lloyd Savage and Miss Minnie Mills will go to Luray to attend the State convention.

Mrs. Margie Le Cato Mapp, wife of Dr. John E. Mapp, died at her home, "Woodland," near Keller, aged seventy years. She had been an invalid for several years. Mrs. Mapp was the daughter of the late Mr. and Mrs. Nathaniel B. LeCato, of "Atlantic View," and was the last of that generation of the Shenandoah valley. She was a sister of the late Dr. George W. LeCato, who represented Accomac and Northampton in the State Senate for several terms. Mrs. Mapp was an unusually popular woman, especially among the young people, who admired her for her sterling traits. Mrs. Mapp has been prominent in the work of Oak Grove Methodist Church.

Mrs. Lloyd Savage and Miss Minnie Mills will go to Luray to attend the State convention.

Mrs. Margie Le Cato Mapp, wife of Dr. John E. Mapp, died at her home, "Woodland," near Keller, aged seventy years. She had been an invalid for several years. Mrs. Mapp was the daughter of the late Mr. and Mrs. Nathaniel B. LeCato, of "Atlantic View," and was the last of that generation of the Shenandoah valley. She was a sister of the late Dr. George W. LeCato, who represented Accomac and Northampton in the State Senate for several terms. Mrs. Mapp was an unusually popular woman, especially among the young people, who admired her for her sterling traits. Mrs. Mapp has been prominent in the work of Oak Grove Methodist Church.

Mrs. Lloyd Savage and Miss Minnie Mills will go to Luray to attend the State convention.

Mrs. Margie Le Cato Mapp, wife of Dr. John E. Mapp, died at her home, "Woodland," near Keller, aged seventy years. She had been an invalid for several years. Mrs. Mapp was the daughter of the late Mr. and Mrs. Nathaniel B. LeCato, of "Atlantic View," and was the last of that generation of the Shenandoah valley. She was a sister of the late Dr. George W. LeCato, who represented Accomac and Northampton in the State Senate for several terms. Mrs. Mapp was an unusually popular woman, especially among the young people, who admired her for her sterling traits. Mrs. Mapp has been prominent in the work of Oak Grove Methodist Church.

Mrs. Lloyd Savage and Miss Minnie Mills will go to Luray to attend the State convention.

Mrs. Margie Le Cato Mapp, wife of Dr. John E. Mapp, died at her home, "Woodland," near Keller, aged seventy years. She had been an invalid for several years. Mrs. Mapp was the daughter of the late Mr. and Mrs. Nathaniel B. LeCato, of "Atlantic View," and was the last of that generation of the Shenandoah valley. She was a sister of the late Dr. George W. LeCato, who represented Accomac and Northampton in the State Senate for several terms. Mrs. Mapp was an unusually popular woman, especially among the young people, who admired her for her sterling traits. Mrs. Mapp has been prominent in the work of Oak Grove Methodist Church.

Mrs. Lloyd Savage and Miss Minnie Mills will go to Luray to attend the State convention.

Mrs. Margie Le Cato Mapp, wife of Dr. John E. Mapp, died at her home, "Woodland," near Keller, aged seventy years. She had been an invalid for several years. Mrs. Mapp was the daughter of the late Mr. and Mrs. Nathaniel B. LeCato, of "Atlantic View," and was the last of that generation of the Shenandoah valley. She was a sister of the late Dr. George W. LeCato, who represented Accomac and Northampton in the State Senate for several terms. Mrs. Mapp was an unusually popular woman, especially among the young people, who admired her for her sterling traits. Mrs. Mapp has been prominent in the work of Oak Grove Methodist Church.

Mrs. Lloyd Savage and Miss Minnie Mills will go to Luray to attend the State convention.

Mrs. Margie Le Cato Mapp, wife of Dr. John E. Mapp, died at her home, "Woodland," near Keller, aged seventy years. She had been an invalid for several years. Mrs. Mapp was the daughter of the late Mr. and Mrs. Nathaniel B. LeCato, of "Atlantic View," and was the last of that generation of the Shenandoah valley. She was a sister of the late Dr. George W. LeCato, who represented Accomac and Northampton in the State Senate for several terms. Mrs. Mapp was an unusually popular woman, especially among the young people, who admired her for her sterling traits. Mrs. Mapp has been prominent in the work of Oak Grove Methodist Church.

Mrs. Lloyd Savage and Miss Minnie Mills will go to Luray to attend the State convention.

Mrs. Margie Le Cato Mapp, wife of Dr. John E. Mapp, died at her home, "Woodland," near Keller, aged seventy years. She had been an invalid for several years. Mrs. Mapp was the daughter of the late Mr. and Mrs. Nathaniel B. LeCato, of "Atlantic View," and was the last of that generation of the Shenandoah valley. She was a sister of the late Dr. George W. LeCato, who represented Accomac and Northampton in the State Senate for several terms. Mrs. Mapp was an unusually popular woman, especially among the young people, who admired her for her sterling traits. Mrs. Mapp has been prominent in the work of Oak Grove Methodist Church.

Mrs. Lloyd Savage and Miss Minnie Mills will go to Luray to attend the State convention.

Mrs. Margie Le Cato Mapp, wife of Dr. John E. Mapp, died at her home, "Woodland," near Keller, aged seventy years. She had been an invalid for several years. Mrs. Mapp was the daughter of the late Mr. and Mrs. Nathaniel B. LeCato, of "Atlantic View," and was the last of that generation of the Shenandoah valley. She was a sister of the late Dr. George W. LeCato, who represented Accomac and Northampton in the State Senate for several terms. Mrs. Mapp was an unusually popular woman, especially among the young people, who admired her for her sterling traits. Mrs. Mapp has been prominent in the work of Oak Grove Methodist Church.

Mrs. Lloyd Savage and Miss Minnie Mills will go to Luray to attend the State convention.

Mrs. Margie Le Cato Mapp, wife of Dr. John E. Mapp, died at her home, "Woodland," near Keller, aged seventy years. She had been an invalid for several years. Mrs. Mapp was the daughter of the late Mr. and Mrs. Nathaniel B. LeCato, of "Atlantic View," and was the last of that generation of the Shenandoah valley. She was a sister of the late Dr. George W. LeCato, who represented Accomac and Northampton in the State Senate for several terms. Mrs. Mapp was an unusually popular woman, especially among the young people, who admired her for her sterling traits. Mrs. Mapp has been prominent in the work of Oak Grove Methodist Church.

Mrs. Lloyd Savage and Miss Minnie Mills will go to Luray to attend the State convention.

Mrs. Margie Le Cato Mapp, wife of Dr. John E. Mapp, died at her home, "Woodland," near Keller, aged seventy years. She had been an invalid for several years. Mrs. Mapp was the daughter of the late Mr. and Mrs. Nathaniel B. LeCato, of "Atlantic View," and was the last of that generation of the Shenandoah valley. She was a sister of the late Dr. George W. LeCato, who represented Accomac and Northampton in the State Senate for several terms. Mrs. Mapp was an unusually popular woman, especially among the young people, who admired her for her sterling traits. Mrs. Mapp has been prominent in the work of Oak Grove Methodist Church.

Mrs. Lloyd Savage and Miss Minnie Mills will go to Luray to attend the State convention.

Mrs. Margie Le Cato Mapp, wife of Dr. John E. Mapp, died at her home, "Woodland," near Keller, aged seventy years. She had been an invalid for several years. Mrs. Mapp was the daughter of the late Mr. and Mrs. Nathaniel B. LeCato, of "Atlantic View," and was the last of that generation of the Shenandoah valley. She was a sister of the late Dr. George W. LeCato, who represented Accomac and Northampton in the State Senate for several terms. Mrs. Mapp was an unusually popular woman, especially among the young people, who admired her for her sterling traits. Mrs. Mapp has been prominent in the work of Oak Grove Methodist Church.

Mrs. Lloyd Savage and Miss Minnie Mills will go to Luray to attend the State convention.

Mrs. Margie Le Cato Mapp, wife of Dr. John E. Mapp, died at her home, "Woodland," near Keller, aged seventy years. She had been an invalid for several years. Mrs. Mapp was the daughter of the late Mr. and Mrs. Nathaniel B. LeCato, of "Atlantic View," and was the last of that generation of the Shenandoah valley. She was a sister of the late Dr. George W. LeCato, who represented Accomac and Northampton in the State Senate for several terms. Mrs. Mapp was an unusually popular woman, especially among the young people, who admired her for her sterling traits. Mrs. Mapp has been prominent in the work of Oak Grove Methodist Church.

Mrs. Lloyd Savage and Miss Minnie Mills will go to Luray to attend the State convention.

Mrs. Margie Le Cato Mapp, wife of Dr. John E. Mapp, died at her home, "Woodland," near Keller